WHAT WE'RE LEARNING

High-Frequency Words

Attached to this Friday Post is a list of the entire year's high-frequency words (aka “snap words”). Please start with the list titled “Unit 1 - K Review.” We recommend that your child makes flash cards for the words they don't yet know in that list to practice at home. When a list is mastered, move sequentially to the next unit. Snap word knowledge is a foundational piece of reading development, and every little bit of practice helps!
