

First Grade Newsletter

In Social Studies we learned about Mt. Rushmore and why each president was chosen for the monument.

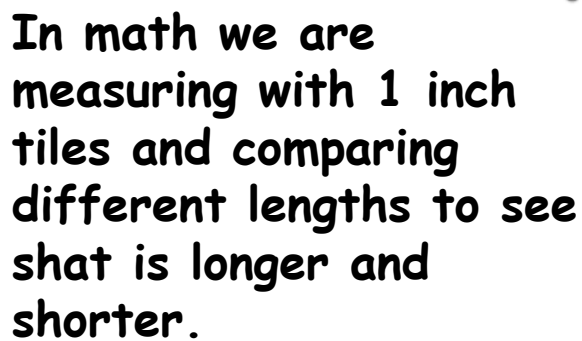

In Science we learned about inventions and created a code to communicate with a partner using only light.

We learned about protein in nutrition class.

We made a healthy sweet treat and a Greek yogurt ranch dressing.

In math we are measuring with 1 inch tiles and comparing different lengths to see what is longer and shorter.

No school
mid winter break
Feb 19 -23