

January 11, 2019

Happy New Year Everyone! We hope you all had a restful break. We (Miss Jackson, Miss Browning and Miss Melissa) want to thank you all for participating in our holiday party the Friday before the break and for all of the very generous gifts! We felt so loved and appreciated. Thank you so very much!

This week we worked on our Small Moments narratives. The kids have been brainstorming story ideas from things that have really happened to them. In Math we have been working on story problems and place value.

Martin Luther King Day is January 21. There will be no school on that day.

Have a great weekend!

Miss Jackson, Miss Browning, Miss Melissa